

Original BMW Accessories Anti-freeze tag and brake fluid sticker

NEWS:

- Product revised

Product description

The coolant anti-freeze tag that has been revamped with the current BMW design, along with the new brake fluid sticker, are intended for attaching to the engine compartment after customer service. They provide a place for the date and the date of the next change to be entered.

The coolant anti-freeze tag can also be ordered with customised dealer addresses printed into them, which provides an excellent opportunity to leave a lasting impression with customers.

Sales features / benefits

- Easy to use: The tag and sticker are very easy to attach in the engine compartment.
- New design: the tag and sticker now feature the current BMW design.
- Clear: The clear design means that customers can see all the key dates at a glance.
- Customer loyalty: The coolant anti-freeze tag version with imprinted, customised dealer address offers you the ability to maintain a presence with the customer even after their service appointment.
